RENEGADE FARMERS AND THE FUTURE OF FOOD IN AMERICA

"Elevates the oft-ignored legume to heroic game changer ...
An important contribution to the sustainable agricultural genre."

—THE SAN FRANCISCO CHRONICLE

LENTIL UNDERGROUND

LIZ CARLISLE

with a new foreword by Frederick L. Kirschenmann, author of Cultivating an Ecological Conscience

Book-to-Action: The Future of Food

April-May 2016

Hayward Main Library, Hayward
City Hall, and CSUEB locations

Get involved in a great book... and in your community! How we produce and consume food has a bigger impact on Americans' health and well-being than any other human activity. Learn what you can do to help chart a new course for the future of food.

In The Lentil Underground, Michael Pollan protégé Liz Carlisle tells the story of an unheralded group of Montana farmers who defied corporate agribusiness by launching a unique sustainable food movement. While supplies last, request a free copy of The Lentil Underground, get details of the complete series of events, and sign up to volunteer:

Featured Program: Tech Gadget Help Day

Saturday, Apr. 2, 1:00-4:00 p.m.
Main Library

Bring in your high-tech gadget for one-on-one help. CSUEB student gadget gurus will show you how to use your digital camera, laptop, tablet, smart phone, cell phone, eReader or other tech gadget. If you have the instructions for the device, bring those, too.

Get help downloading apps, books, and audiobooks and streaming music, movies, and television programs to your computer, mobile device, phone, or tablet. Get assistance with setting up and using email and flash drives, and with posting photos to Facebook or other social network sites.

Stop by and let us answer your tech questions. We can't repair or set up your computer, but just about anything else, we will do our best to get you up to 21st-Century speed. No registration necessary! Drop on in.

Volunteering at the Library

Volunteers are a valuable resource at the Hayward Public Library. Literacy Plus Tutors provide free, confidential, one-to-one literacy tutoring to adults who read below 8th-grade level. Friends of the Library help with book sales to raise funds for library services and promote the library in the community. Homework Support Center volunteers help students with their homework after school. Seed Lending Library volunteers help solicit and inventory seed donations, among other tasks.

Sign up to volunteer by completing an application form at the library or online at <http://tinyurl.com/volunteer-hpl>.
